BRITISH COLUMBIA

SCI National member Ron Spomer reports on a hunt with Canadian Mountain Outfitters and guide Bryan Martin. Species taken include mountain goat and mountain caribou. The mountain goat green scored 49 5/8 B&C and the caribou grossed 370 B&C. Species hunted but not taken included moose and black bear - Spomer explains: "Too small, too early, no bears seen." Personal highlights for Spomer: "Seeing, hearing and hunting true wilderness with competent, experienced guides, good horses and gear. Seeing nine, nine-inch billies in one basin." Spomer used a Kifaru Rambling Rifle, 7 mm-08, with Federal. 140-grain Trophy Bonded Bear Claws. Comments on performance of guide: "Toughest, most enthusiastic and energetic guide I've ever hunted with." Comments on performance of outfitter: "Hard working, upbeat, dedicated. Can do attitude. Always friendly and helpful. Really knew the country." Cost of hunt: $7,000.
